Payment by Bank Transfer

When paying the registration fee by bank transfer, any additional handling fees of the respective banks involved in the transaction must be born by the attendee. Bank transfers in a currency different than Japanese Yen will not be accepted.

International Bank Transfer

In the case of international bank transfers, please exchange from your currency to Japanese Yen (JPY) prior making the transaction. The handling fee of the conference's bank for the reception of an international bank transfer is 4,000 JPY. Accordingly, please, set the amount of money to be wired to the conference's bank as follows:

84,000 JPY for a regular registration (After the 21st of June 2014)

64,000 JPY for a student registration (After the 21st of June 2014)

34,000 JPY for an accompanying person (After the 21st of June 2014)

Upon receiving a final payment by an amount below the corresponding fee, the attendee will be asked to pay the difference in cash at the registration desk during the conference. In case of any irregularity arising from the bank transfer, the organisation will contact the attendee.

To complete the registration process, please, send a legible digital copy (scan or picture) of the bank transfer receipt or statement together with this form.
