

Notification (Change) of Place of Residence

All visitors who are going to stay in Japan for more than 90 days will be issued with a residence card on arrival in Japan.

If you receive one, you need to file a moving-in notification with your municipal office within 14 days after you have settled into a new address. Please bring your residence card (or passport if your residence card is to be issued later) for the notification. If you move to a new place, you have to go to the municipal office with your residence card within 14 days to file a change of address notification.

 A change of status must be reported to the municipal office immediately.

 A lost, stolen, or damaged card must also be reported to the immigration office immediately.
